

Equestrian property developments : Maisons Laffitte

Rare: equestrian property complex in Maisons Laffitte comprising flats and studios as well as a stable on 3544 m² of land.

This is a large U-shaped courtyard made up of several late 19th century buildings.

The horse area includes 34 rented boxes and 8 private boxes, paddocks and a sand working arena.

The flats occupy the first floor of the buildings.

The equestrian environment gives the site a natural feel and a certain serenity. Access to the St-Germain-en-Laye forest via bridle paths. Access to the riding arenas (x4) and the racecourse spring garden, less than 100 metres from the stables.

Maisons Laffitte has excellent rail links (RER + SNCF).

Additional information:

All the flats are currently let.

Individual electric heating.

Two entrances to this property.

One parking space in the courtyard for the large flat

The Stables :

A first rental complex of 34 spacious boxes is spread throughout the buildings.

Fibre-treated arena 30m by 30m, Havrincourt round, two small sand paddocks, office, club house, four tack rooms, two garages.

A second complex, currently private, consists of 8 boxes with a tack room.

Additional information:

Horses can be trained outside the property (bridle paths in the Saint-Germain-en-Laye forest, jumping courses) via routes accessible from the stables.

This building complex is a relaxing place away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

Several types of financing and legal arrangements can be made for a purchase (in your own name, as part of a company, or a combination of the two). This property generates attractive and reassuring rental income that can contribute to the acquisition project.

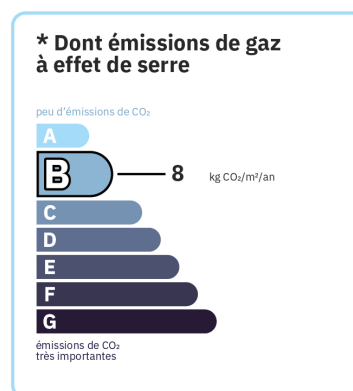

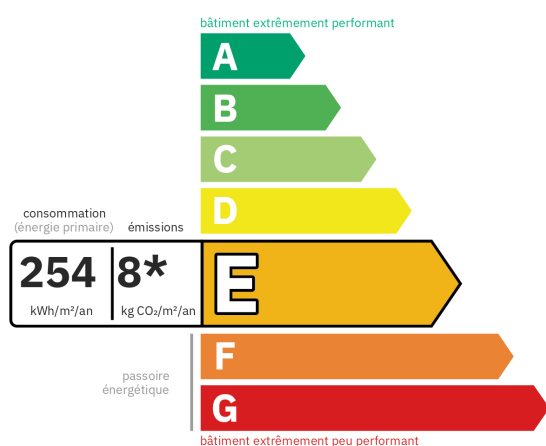

Non-contractual document information.
